Mouthwatering Food with a Breathtaking View

Enjoy the flavor of the Rocky Mountains while feasting your eyes on the Continental Divide. Our menus are as spectacular as Grand County itself. We use local, sustainable ingredients whenever possible. Our meats are antibiotic and hormone-free, steaks and poultry come from farms and ranches where livestock is humanely treated. As a pioneer in the slow and local food movements, Chef Evan Treadwell has masterfully created a menu that is sure to delight.

Heck's

It's a cool place for you to relax with a hot meal. The appeal of this tavern-style dining room rests not only in our breakfast, lunch, dinner and casual wine list; but also in the beauty of its vaulted, two-story ceiling and six-sided fireplace. Heck's is the perfect place for you to kick back, just for the heck of it. Reservations recommended. Menu is available for in-room dining in the lodge as well as at the spa or poolside.

Hallowed Grounds Coffee House

Perk up with a homemade pastry washed down with the freshest roasted coffee. Sit and savor the atmosphere or grab something to enjoy on the go.

Ranch House Restaurant & Saloon

Converted from an original homestead cabin built in 1937, Ranch House Restaurant serves a different kind of ambiance. You can enjoy a fine dining menu that changes frequently to accommodate the freshest, seasonal ingredients without having to change out of your jeans. Pair your meal with one of more than 400 domestic and international wines in a place voted by locals to be "most romantic" and "best view." Open seasonally, for dinner only. Reservations highly recommended.

John Ls' Wine Cellar

We help you savor the moment in our private, intimate dining room surrounded by a beautiful wine collection. Handcrafted cherry wood wine racks and beams from the owner's family's land in the Adirondacks set the scene in an area with customizable menus and seating for up to 20 of your closest friends, family members or co-workers. Reservations required.
